About The PIPEs Conference

The DealFlow team started covering private investments in public equity 20 years ago with The PIPEs Report, and the deal-tracking service PrivateRaise. We also hosted the industry’s annual event, which was held in locations around the world.

The PIPE market has continued to evolve with many new investors and advisors joining the industry and eager for the opportunity to exchange ideas and form in-person relationships with the most active players in this important corner of the capital markets.

In addition to serving as a forum for professional networking and dealmaking, The PIPEs Conference at The Hard Rock Hotel & Casino in Florida will cover the latest developments in regulation and law, trends in the market, noteworthy transaction structures, and more.
